- h) has failed to rectify/make good his failures within a period of 7 days.

Then in any of the said causes, the Corporation may, notwithstanding any previous waiver after giving seven days' notice in writing to the Contractor determine the "contract" but without thereby affecting the obligation and liabilities of the Contractor; the whole of which shall continue to be in force as fully as if the 'contract' had not been so determined and as if the 'works' subsequently executed has been executed by or on behalf of the Contractor.

1.14.05 On termination of the 'Contract' for any cause, the Contractor shall see to the orderly suspension and termination of operation with due consideration to the interest of the Corporation with respect to completion, safeguarding or storing for the performance of the "Contract" and the salvage and resale thereof.

1.14.06 Notwithstanding anything indicated above, corporation reserves right to terminate the contract due to unforeseen reasons on mutually agreed terms or by giving 15 day's notice.

1.15.0 VARIATIONS:

- 1.15.01 No alteration, amendments, omission, additions or variation (herein after referred to as variations) under the contract as detailed in the ‘contract’ documents shall be made unless directed in writing by the Corporation. The Corporation shall have full powers subject to the provision herein after contained from time to time during the execution of Contract to make such variation without prejudice to contract. The Bidder shall carryout such variation and be bound by the same condition as though the said variation occurred in the contract documents. If any suggested variation would be in the opinion of the Contractor, if carried out prevent him from fulfilling any of his obligation or guarantees under the contract he shall notify the Corporation thereof in writing or the Corporation shall decide forthwith whether or not the same shall be carried out and if the Corporation confirms its instruction, the Contractor’s obligation and guarantees shall be modified to such an extent as may be mutually agreed. Any agreed difference in cost occasioned by any such variation shall be added to or deducted from the contract price as the case may be.
- 1.15.02 In the event of Corporation requiring any variation, such reasonable and prompt notice shall be given to the Contractor to enable him to work his arrangement.
- 1.15.03 In any case in which the Contractor has received instructions from Corporation as to the requirement of carrying out the altered or additional substitute work the addition or deletion of the scope of work will be governed by the unit price indicated in the price schedule.
- 1.15.04 As per the KTPP act [Chapter VI rule 12 (5)], “Tender accepting Authority shall be ordinarily permitted to vary the quantity finally ordered only to the extent of twenty-five percent either way of the requirement indicated in the tender documents”.

1.16.0 WARRANTY/GUARANTEE:

- 1.16.01 The contractor shall guarantee quality, efficiency and performance standards of the material amongst other things as per the latest Industry Standards.
- 1.16.02 The contractor shall provide warranty for a period of one year from the date of satisfactory installation against any defect in software media or manufacture defects in MS Office 2016 software (or latest)/license.
- 1.16.03 In the event of an emergency where in the judgment of Corporation delay would cause serious loss or damage, repairs or replacement or adjustment may be made by the Corporation or a third party chosen by Corporation without advance notice to the Contractor and the cost of such works shall be paid by the Contractor. In the event such action is taken by the Corporation, the Contractor will be notified promptly and he shall assist wherever possible in making necessary correction. This shall not extinguish the Contractors liability under the terms and conditions of the contract.
- 1.16.04 The acceptance of the material by the Corporation shall in no way relieve the Contractor of his obligation under this clause.

1.16.05 The provision of this clause including the cost of shipment, transportation, taxes and other incidental if any, shall be implemented at Contractor's expense .

1.18.0 REJECTION OF DEFECTIVE EQUIPMENT:

1.18.01 If the equipment, or any portion thereof is found defective, or fails to fulfill the requirement of the contract, the Corporation shall give the Contractor notice setting forth such defects of failure, and the Contractor shall forthwith make the defective equipment good, or alter the same to make it comply with the requirement of the contract. Should he fail to do so within a reasonable time, the Corporation may reject and replace at the cost of the Contractor, the whole or any portion of the equipment, as the case may be which is defective or fails to fulfill the requirements of the contract. Such replacement shall be carried out by the Corporation within a reasonable time and at a reasonable price, and where reasonably possible to the same specification and under competitive conditions. The Contractor's full and extreme liability under this clause shall be satisfied by the payment to the Corporation of the extra cost, if any, of such replacement delivered as provided for in the original contract, such extra cost being the ascertained difference between the price paid by the Corporation. Under the provisions above mentioned, for such replacement and the contract price for the equipment so replaced and the repayment of any sum paid by the Corporation to the Contractor in respect of such defective equipment. Should the Corporation not so replace the rejected equipment within a reasonable time, the Contractor's full and extreme liability under this clause shall be satisfied by the repayment of all the money paid by the Corporation to him in respect of such equipment.

1.18.02 In the event of such rejection, the Corporation shall be entitled to the use of the equipment in a reasonable and proper manner for a time reasonably sufficient to enable him to obtain other replacement equipment. During the period the rejected equipment is used the Contractor shall not be entitled to any payment for such use.

1.19.0 DEFENCE OF SUITS:

1.19.01 If any action in court is brought against the Corporation, an officer or agent of the Corporation for the failure, omission or neglect on the part of the Contractor to perform any acts, matters, covenants of things under the 'contract' or for damage of injury caused by the alleged omission or negligence on the part of the Contractor, his agents, representatives or his sub-contractor or in connection with any claim based on lawful demands of sub-contractor, workmen, contractors or employees, the Contractor shall in all such cases indemnify and keep the corporation and/or its representative harmless from all losses, damages, expenses or decrees arising out of such action.

1.19.02 The Corporation shall have full power and right at its discretion to defend or compromise any suit or pay claim or demand brought or made against him as aforesaid whether pending or threatened, as he may consider necessary or desirable and shall be entitled to recover from the Contractor all sums of money including the amount of damages and compensation and all legal costs, charges and expenses in connection with any compromise or award which shall not be called into question by the Contractor and shall be final and binding upon the Contractor.
